Reading:

Hello Pete,

It's Thursday and I'm in a fantastic place in Poland. It's in the countryside and it isn't far from Warsaw. The weather is bad – it's very cold and snowy.

There is an old white house with a black roof. The windows are big. There are beautiful white curtains, too. Inside, there is a big hall and a living room with two armchairs, a long table and a TV set. There is a small white kitchen, where you can cook delicious cakes. There are always many people and pets in the house. There are two cats and two dogs.

There is a small guest house in the garden, too. You can have art lessons in the small house. You can make bookmarks, pillows or pretty boxes there.

In the summer, you can stay outside and have a lot of fun. You can play in the playground, sit by the campfire or play hide and seek in the forest. You can also play with animals. You can hold three little rabbits or watch the birds: eight chickens and six ducks. There are four alpacas, too and they are cute! You can go for a walk with the alpacas or ride a horse in the forest!

Take care, Greta.
